

Tupperware Incentive Trip Terms and Conditions

The “Pink Lady”, Don CeSar Beach Resort, St. Petersburg Florida

The following terms and conditions apply to all trip program awards.

- Qualifiers must be an active member of the sales force at the time of travel to participate in this trip.
- All trip participants must be 18 years of age or older to participate.
- Incentive trip dates are firm and all airline tickets will be issued for the specified trip dates only.
- Other than spouse or significant other, trip qualifiers (who earn the trip for two) may not bring another sales force member as a guest.
- “Trip for one” qualifiers will share a hotel guest room with another qualifier.
- All travel arrangements must be made through Tupperware.
- Travel enrollment forms must be submitted to Tupperware by the deadline date. If forms are not received by the deadline date, trip awards shall be forfeited.
- As the qualifier, by submitting your signed travel enrollment form, you are confirming your acceptance of this award and acknowledge that you will receive a 1099/T4A for the value of the trip (1099/T4A value will be determined based on the actual cost of the trip per government guidelines).
- There is no cash option for this trip nor is there a cash option for any unused portion of the Trip Package.
- Should circumstances arise that are beyond Tupperware’s control, Tupperware reserves the right to change travel dates, destinations, host hotels and program itinerary.
- Trip is non-transferable.
- For qualifiers who choose to drive to the trip destination instead of taking an airplane flight: The qualifier will be reimbursed for the lesser amount of either the mileage or the cost of the flight. Mileage will be calculated from the qualifier’s home address to the address of the trip hotel. The mileage rate will be based on the current Tupperware mileage reimbursement rate. Reimbursement will be given at the destination during the incentive trip and will not be provided prior to arrival.
- Tupperware reserves the right to determine the airline carrier, flight schedule and departure airport.
- Travel awards originate from gateway cities within the United States or Canada. It is the responsibility of qualifiers residing outside the United States and its territories or Canada (including foreign-based U.S. or Canadian military installations) to pay for travel to and from the gateway city airport approved by Tupperware.
- All qualifiers are responsible for transportation between the qualifier’s home and the scheduled departure airport. Qualifiers are also responsible for airport gratuities and airport parking.
- All qualifiers are responsible for any luggage or meal fees charged by the airline.
- Guest of the qualifier must be ticketed from the same gateway city as the trip qualifier and will share the qualifier’s accommodations.
- All qualifiers and guests will be responsible to provide the appropriate documentation for travel.
- Additional fees resulting from name changes requested (or required) after the travel enrollment form has been submitted to Tupperware will be the sole responsibility of the qualifier.
- There is no provision for buy-ins for this promotion.
- Tupperware reserves the right to audit and verify qualifications.
- Tupperware’s decision regarding eligibility for the travel award will be final.
